Character Attendants

Along with our characters, you can request a character attendant for your event. These character attendants are 100% FREE and helpful for events with a large expected crowd or a public location for our characters.

When is a character attendant needed?

- If you are booking a mascot.
- If you do not have your own employee available to travel with the character(s) to/from their vehicle or break spot.
- If your expected guest count may require lines to be cut off for the character(s) to leave.
- If your event is being held in a public place where regular patrons may have to be discouraged from distracting them.

When is a character attendant not needed?

- If the character will be in one spot for the entire event.
- If the guest count for the event allows freedom to create longer interactions.
- If your event is located in a private location.

Success at Past Events

Princess Party Chicago came to our school district for a concert and meet-n-greet and they did such a fabulous job. The princesses had the most amazing voices and they all interacted so wonderfully with all the families and little ones. All the adults in attendance had such wonderful reviews to share with us about their experience. Great job Princess Party Chicago!

I went to one of their events at blackberry farms. I got to say- it was amazing! I am totally amazed at the kind of service that they do. The characters never even once said anything different from their stories. My daughter asked them about a cell phone, and their response was, "What's that?" My daughter then explained what it was. I thought that discourse between my daughter and the character was amazing. As a parent, it was beautiful.

Used Princess Party Chicago for a recent charity event and they were amazing! I would highly recommend working with Lauren and her team. Lauren was very responsive and easy to work with and the performers were very talented and made our party!

I've used Elsa and Anna for an event at my preschool and then Elsa virtually and both experiences were amazing! They look amazing and real and will even get in character when talking to the children!

I was given the opportunity to work with Princess Party Chicago this past weekend at our Make-A-Wish Illinois Wish Ball celebration where we celebrated 30 years as a chapter. To give a little background about Wish Ball- this is one of Make-A-Wish Illinois' largest charity events. The room is filled with over 1,000 of Chicago's elite and in the past we have raised over 2.1 million. This year we wanted to make the event extra special and bring to life some of the wishes our Wish Kids wish for. Without hesitation, Princess Party Chicago stepped up to the plate and donated their services. From the beginning it was such a pleasure working with them. Very prompt, very professional. The night of the event they were great! From the moment I met the Princesses/ Princes in the lobby all characters were "in character" and ready to mingle with the crowd. Everybody loved them! They interacted well with both the kids and the adults and were a complete hit! The adults had a great time dancing and taking photos with their childhood favorites. Highly suggest and we will certainly be using them again.

A: You can either pay your invoice in full or sign our contract to get booked and on our schedule. If signing a contract, payment is due BEFORE the characters enter your event.

A: If you book 5+ events at once or 5+ characters at one single event, you receive 10% off your booking(s).
